Weddings at Bloomfield Lodge

Bloomfield's magnificent location is perfect for a unique and very individual wedding. There are no crowds, no queuing up for your slot, just a wonderful tropical setting with as much or as little ceremony as you choose.

A wedding at Bloomfield Lodge is tailor-made to your requirements so you can decide exactly what you would like to be included and what kind of service you would like. There's a choice of beautiful bridal bouquets and wedding cakes and a celebrant and photographer can be flown in especially at your request.

Before your big day, Bloomfield Lodge staff will discuss every aspect of your wedding with you so that you can just relax and enjoy your stay. All our weddings are held on the decking in front of our Gazebo's, which provides a magnificent backdrop for you to take your vows.

On the day of the wedding all your chosen arrangements are carefully put into place, with fresh flowers decorating the terrace area. The marriage service is conducted according to your wishes, the champagne corks are popped and lunch or dinner is served. The surroundings are beautiful, the stresses and pressures that can sometimes accompany a wedding are noticeably absent, while the good wishes offered by staff and guests alike are warm and unreserved.

Some couples prefer to keep the occasion just for themselves, however the Lodge can cater for up to 32 people in 16 different rooms for those who wish to bring along close family and friends. Either way, the Bloomfield Lodge staff are only too happy to accommodate individual requests and every wedding here really is a unique experience.

Whether or not you hold your wedding at Bloomfield Lodge, as a honeymoon location it really can't be beaten. Guests staying in one of the beautiful Honeymoon Retreats receive a complimentary bottle of Australian sparkling wine and a fresh fruit platter on arrival. These Retreats are set well away from the Lodge ensuring total privacy in a glorious setting.
