Bloomfield Lodge wins the Double at Tourism Awards

Bloomfield Lodge takes home a Silver Award at the Queensland Tourism Awards and wins at the Tropical North Queensland Awards for Excellence for 'Best Unique Accommodation'.

Tropical North Queensland is home to a myriad of premium, world-class tourism products that compete annually for the prestige and distinction of being awarded a Tourism Excellence Award.

The Queensland Tourism Awards were held at the Royal International Convention Centre on Friday, 22 November where more than 800 operators and industry representatives celebrated the success and achievements of tourism in Queensland. QTIC Chief Executive Daniel Gschwind said "The Queensland Tourism Awards give businesses and individuals an opportunity to take pride in their contributions to the industry, raise the standard of quality tourism experiences throughout the state and strive for ongoing improvements to achieve our tourism goals."

At the 15th annual Tropical North Queensland Tourism Awards on Friday, November 29, more than 320 people gathered at the Pullman Cairns International with the awards attracting a record number of 50 entries. Bloomfield Lodge was proud to win 'Best Unique Accommodation' for the third year running.

The award was accepted on behalf of Bloomfield Lodge by its long-term managers Ben Morley and Courtenay Greer-Morley. On receiving the award Ben said "I am delighted that the hard work, determination and passion of our dedicated staff has been recognised by the industry for a third year running. The team at Bloomfield Lodge is passionate about providing our guests a truly special and memorable stay."

Tourism Tropical North Chairman Stephen Gregg thanked the winners for their passion and commitment to tourism in the region, "Tropical North Queensland's success in becoming the number one regional holiday destination in Australia for international holiday visitors has been helped by the support of a great network of industry partners and I thank you all for your commitment to our destination."

Bloomfield Lodge is set in an unspoilt corner of Far North Queensland, at the most northern tip of the world heritage listed Daintree Rainforest where it meets the magical Great Barrier Reef. Enchanting and beautifully remote, this boutique rainforest delights guests with gourmet dining featuring fresh local ingredients, friendly personalised service and rare chance to really relax and get away from it all or to discover some of the highlights of tropical North Queensland. Rates at Bloomfield Lodge start from $736 per room per night including full board gourmet cuisine.
