BLOOMFIELD LODGE EARNS 2013 TRIPADVISOR CERTIFICATE OF EXCELLENCE

Bloomfield Lodge in tropical North Queensland, Australia has received a TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence award. The accolade, which honours excellence, is given only to hospitality establishments that consistently achieve outstanding traveller reviews on TripAdvisor, with only the top-performing 10 per cent of businesses listed on TripAdvisor receiving this prestigious award. To qualify, businesses must maintain an overall rating of four or higher, out of a possible five, as reviewed by travellers on TripAdvisor for at least 12 months.

Bloomfield Lodge is thrilled to receive a TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence for 2013, Managing Director Ben Morley said "We strive on a daily basis to offer a memorable and outstanding guest experience, receiving so many positive reviews on TripAdvisor and earning this accolade recognises our hard work and dedication to achieving this."

"TripAdvisor is delighted to celebrate the success of businesses around the globe, which are consistently offering TripAdvisor travellers a great customer experience," said Alison Copus, Vice President of Marketing for TripAdvisor for Business. "The Certificate of Excellence award provides top performing establishments around the world the recognition they deserve, based on feedback from those who matter most – their customers."
